Section Four: Written Application

Please attach a written statement of up to 1000 words outlining what the scholarship will be used for and why it will be valuable for your personal development, and how it will benefit the Brigade.

Some questions that might guide your statement are:

- How did or will the course/training/conference benefit you? Examples of benefits could include increasing your knowledge of disaster response, networking with people from other Brigades or states, or building your skill base.
- How did or will your activity/education benefit the Brigade? Examples of benefits could include increasing general Brigade knowledge (as you came back and shared skills), building links to other Brigades, or improving your leadership capacity to take on more responsibilities.

Section Five: Supporting Documentation

Please attach the following:

- Proof that you have attended your educational or professional development activity eg proof of enrolment, acceptance notification, etc.

Please attach any costs being claimed for, such as:

- Cost of travel
- Cost of course
- Required materials list eg textbooks
- Entry/nomination costs

These can be either invoiced costs or proof-of-purchase receipts.

Section Six: Responsibilities

You will be required to write a brief summary of your experience upon receipt of the scholarship, to be put on the Association website.
